

My spirit longs for Thee

composed for St. Anne's Church Choir, Fence, by

JOHN BERTALOT

Words: J. Byrom 1630-1763

mf

All voices 1 My spi - rit longs for thee with - in my troub - led breast, though I un - worth - y be of so di - vine a guest.

2 Of so di - vine a guest un - worth - y though I be,

yet has my heart no rest ————— un - less — it comes — from thee.

Ladies 3. Un - less it comes from thee. —————

Men 3. un - less — it comes — from thee, — from

— in vain — I look — a - round; in all that I can see ————— thee, in vain — I look — a - round; in all — that I — can see ————— no rest is to be found.

All voices

f 4 No rest is to be found but in thy

Sub

ff

bless - ed love; O let my wish be crown'd, and slower

send it from a - bove.

Sub

Melody & arrangement by John Bertalot, 9th February, 2008, Mellor, Lancs.